

Welcome to the Amazing Charts Backline Portal, our new Telehealth Software Solution!

You have been set up as a Backline User. You should have received your credentials in a separate email from Backline. If you haven't received them, please check your spam folder.

Log into Backline by following this link: backline-health.com.

Please use this link to access Backline as the one in the registration email will not allow for the Telehealth video chats.
